

Every year, our spiritual life invites us to set aside forty days - the season of Lent - to strengthen our faith life. We intentionally set aside those aspects of our life that clutter our minds and impede our relationship with God. Sometimes I think that time is our most precious resource yet we do so willingly waste time - searching the television for something to entertain us, mindlessly surfing the internet because it is so readily available, and many other unhealthy activities. I wonder what our lives would feel like if we did not so readily succumb to time-wasters, but instead allocate our time as if it were gold. Time to rest, to pray, to ponder life, nurture relationships, read the scriptures, contemplate our purpose here and now ... all these are worthy activities. Which will you undertake these forty days? Renew your heart for Easter!

Archdeacon Kim

Joan Pepper

Windsor has been my lifetime home and All Saints' my home away from home. For many years I've sung in the choir under the amazing direction of our Organist and Choirmaster David Palmer. Following my Mother's joy and passion, I studied English and Drama at the University of Windsor and have always found poetry uplifting and insightful. Teaching was my love for almost 40 years, especially in the area of Special Education. I have two wonderful children and their partners and two adorable granddaughters whom I'm fortunate to look after four days a week.

Glenda Fisher, M.S.W., R.S.W., retired from Windsor Regional Hospital in October, 2009 after 29 years of service. Born and raised in Calgary, Glenda relocated to Windsor many years ago to complete both her undergraduate and post-graduate studies in Social Work and has spent a total of 39 years in the field. Along with her regular employment, Glenda spent 22 years teaching in the School of Social Work, University of Windsor, as a sessional Lecturer. For many years Glenda has maintained a small private psychotherapy practice which she continues. Along with her Practice, she is the Lay Pastoral Minister at All Saints' and hopes to be ordained a Deacon in the future.

Pastor Greg Yantzi

I have been pastor at Harrow Mennonite Church for over 12 years. My wife, Laurie and I have 3 sons - Brett (21), Devin (19), and Matthew (16). Many of my interests and activities revolve around athletics and education. Several nights during the week are spent in hockey arenas supporting my children but also interacting with many community members on a variety of political and social topics that are relevant to peoples' lives. I am extremely passionate about sports but also about living as a disciple of Christ that is engaged with the realities of our culture and sharing the hope of God's kingdom throughout our world.

Kenn Stanton

Kenn has been a member of All Saints' since 1965, where he sang in the choir for 30 years. He was married and his children were baptised here and educated in our Sunday School.

He plans to have his ashes placed in the Scott Arthurs' Memorial Garden. He is currently the Curator/Administrator of the North American Black Historical Museum in Amherstburg.
