

Jan. 28 Intercessions EPIPHANY 4

Jesus displays all the signs that mark him out to be God's chosen One.

As we gather in the presence of the almighty, all-knowing God, let us pray.

The congregational response, as printed in to-day's bulletin, is:

Holy God: may your will be done.

Holy God, great Spirit of all, may the whole Church honour and glorify your name in daily lives, private prayer and public worship. (pause)

Holy God: may your will be done.

May the whole world resound with your truth, activate your compassion, and be soaked in your peace. (pause) Holy God: may your will be done.

May all homes and households make plenty of room for kindness and forgiveness; clear the clutter of discontent, and make us more thankful. (pause)

Holy God: may your will be done.

May all who ache with sadness or physical pain be comforted and cherished, knowing your love for them. (pause) Holy God: may your will be done.

May the dying be surrounded with our prayers, and those who have passed beyond death remain safe for ever in your keeping. (pause)

Holy God: may your will be done.

As we step into each new day may our thanks and praise give joy to the living God.

Loving God accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.
