

Prayer of the People

Let us pray to God, the Lord of the Harvest in all things material and spiritual; responding to “Lord, in your mercy” with “... hear our prayer.”

As you have blessed the Church with abundant grace, keep us faithful in the offering of Word and sacrament, knowing that all things come from you and return to you. Send out your labourers to gather the harvest of the world, that all may know the riches of your love.

Lord, in your mercy ... hear our prayer.

We pray for all who work that others may be fed, for those who bring in the harvest of the land and the sea. We pray for those employed in processing and transport of food. Grant a more just distribution of the goods of the world.

Lord, in your mercy ... hear our prayer.

Give to us, our families and friends, grateful hearts for all your bounty and a concern for the needs of others. Bless those who work to bring meals to the poor and infirm in this community.

Lord, in your mercy ... hear our prayer.

We pray for all who are hungry and undernourished. We pray especially for the children whose health is damaged by lack of food. Bless those who work for the relief of famine.

Lord, in your mercy ... hear our prayer.

We give thanks for the departed who have been gathered into your care... Grant them the joy of faith brought to fruition in your heavenly Kingdom.

Lord, in your mercy ... hear our prayer.

We offer our prayers, desiring to be faithful labourers for the harvest of Christ’s Kingdom; through the same, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

Prelude

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Please stand as procession enters

The Grace

The celebrant greets the standing community with the following:

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Almighty God,
All to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Glory to God

Celebrant Glory to God in the highest,
All and peace to his people on earth. Lord God, heavenly king, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant Let us pray
All pray silently, standing as you are able. The celebrant then prays the collect, after which the people respond: Amen

Harvest Thanksgiving

October 11, 2020

Readings Joel 2.21-27, Psalm 126, 1 Timothy 2.1-7, Matthew 6.25-33

Sentence Those who sowed with tears will reap with songs of joy. Psalm 126.6

Collect Creator of the fruitful earth, you made us stewards of all things. Give us grateful hearts for all your goodness, and steadfast wills to use your bounty well, that the whole human family, today and in generations to come, may with us give thanks for the riches of your creation. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts

Source of all life, the heaven and earth are yours, yet you have given us dominion over all things. Receive the symbols of our labour and love which we offer you this day, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer after Communion

God of our hope, in this eucharist we find the source of all your blessings. Nourished in these holy mysteries may we, with our lives, give you continual thanks and praise. This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The Sermon - The Rev'd Robert Clifford

A Silence for reflection may follow.

The Apostles' Creed

Please stand, as you are able.

Celebrant Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Each petition will conclude with "Lord, in your mercy" and the congregation is invited to respond with "... hear our prayer."

Confession

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Please maintain a prayerful silence.

Celebrant Most merciful God,
All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Absolution

*The celebrant then pronounces the Absolution, after which the people respond: Amen

The Peace

The celebrant addresses the people:

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

During the anthem bread and wine are presented at the altar and the gifts of the people are brought forward.

Offertory Anthem

Prayer over the Gifts

*Please stand, as you are able. The celebrant may say the Prayer over the Gifts, following which the people say, Amen

Eucharistic Prayer

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The celebrant continues with the Preface, which concludes "...to proclaim the glory of your name."

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The celebrant continues with the Prayer of Consecration, which concludes “by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.”

All Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All We, being many, are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

All Therefore let us keep the feast.

The Communion

The celebrant invites the people to share in communion and may say,

The gifts of God for the People of God.

People Thanks be to God.

All baptised Christians are welcome to come forward to receive the church’s highest offering to God, the Holy Eucharist. Everyone is welcome to come forward for a blessing. A gluten sensitive option is available, please ask.

Act of Reception

If for any reason you wish to remain at your seat and not receive the bread of the Holy Eucharist today, please feel free to pray the following from your seat to join yourself spiritually to the act of taking Communion.

“In union, dear Lord, with the faithful at every altar of thy Church where thy blessed Body and Blood are being offered to the Father, I desire to offer thee praise and thanksgiving. I believe that thou art truly present in the Holy Sacrament. And since I cannot now receive thee sacramentally, I beseech thee to come spiritually into my heart. I unite myself unto thee, and embrace thee with all the affections of my soul. Let me never be separated from thee. Let me live and die in thy love. Amen.

Come Lord Jesus, dwell in thy servant in the fullness of thy strength, in the perfection of thy ways, and in the holiness of thy spirit, and rule over every hostile power in the might of thy Spirit, and to the glory of the Father. Amen.

May the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my body and soul unto everlasting life. Amen.”

At the conclusion of the communion, please keep a prayerful silence.

Music at Communion

Prayer after Communion

Celebrant Let us pray.

*Standing, the community prays in silence. The celebrant may say the Prayer after Communion appointed for the day. At the conclusion of the prayer the congregation says, Amen

Celebrant Glory to God,

All whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.
