THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Please stand as procession enters

The Grace

The celebrant greets the standing community with the following:

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Almighty God,
All to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Glory to God

Celebrant Glory to God in the highest,
All and peace to his people on earth. Lord God, heavenly king, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant Let us pray

All pray silently, standing as you are able. The celebrant then prays the collect, after which the people respond: Amen

Prayers of the People

Let us pray to God who is rightfully to be honoured by all of creation; responding to “Lord, in your mercy” with “... hear our prayer.”

As you have given grace to your Church through the Holy Spirit, grant that members may show that grace by Word and deed in their lives.

Lord, in your mercy ... hear our prayer.

May all who are concerned in the affairs of this world remember the honour due to you. Enlighten all in authority with the spirit of justice and mercy.

Lord, in your mercy ... hear our prayer.

Help us so to live that we shall be good examples to our neighbours and colleagues. Guide in honesty and fair dealing those who do business in this community.

Lord, in your mercy ... hear our prayer.

Heal the minds that are warped by bitterness and the wish to harm others. Have mercy on all who are deprived of their true joy by love of vain things.

Lord, in your mercy ... hear our prayer.

May the power of the risen Christ, who saves us, grant to the departed refreshment, light and peace.

Lord, in your mercy ... hear our prayer.

We pray that our lives may be obedient and our offerings sincere in the faith of Christ. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

Please stand, as you are able.

Celebrant Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Renewal of Marriage Vows

The celebrant may address the congregation in these or similar words.

Celebrant Friends in Christ, we are gathered together with Sharon and Norman who have come today to give thanks for God's blessing upon them, and to reaffirm their marriage covenant.

Let us pray.

Gracious and ever-living God, look with favour on Norm and Sharon who come to renew the promises they made at their wedding. Grant them your blessing, and assist them with your grace, that with steadfast love they may continue to honour and keep their vows; through Jesus Christ our Saviour, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People Amen.

The Blessing

Standing as you are able, the celebrant may Bless the people.

At the conclusion of the prayer the congregation says,

Prayer for the week!

You know us each by name, O God, and in your sight we have found favour, yet our minds cannot comprehend the vision of your glory or the vastness of your love. Grant, that as we glimpse your greatness, we may always return to you the praise that is yours alone. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Act of Reception

If for any reason you wish to remain at your seat and not receive the bread of the Holy Eucharist today, please feel free to pray the following from your seat to join yourself spiritually to the act of taking Communion.

“In union, dear Lord, with the faithful at every altar of thy Church where thy blessed Body and Blood are being offered to the Father, I desire to offer thee praise and thanksgiving. I believe that thou art truly present in the Holy Sacrament. And since I cannot now receive thee sacramentally, I beseech thee to come spiritually into my heart. I unite myself unto thee, and embrace thee with all the affections of my soul. Let me never be separated from thee. Let me live and die in thy love. Amen.

Come Lord Jesus, dwell in thy servant in the fullness of thy strength, in the perfection of thy ways, and in the holiness of thy spirit, and rule over every hostile power in the might of thy Spirit, and to the glory of the Father. Amen.

May the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my body and soul unto everlasting life. Amen.”

At the conclusion of the communion, please keep a prayerful silence.

All whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

The couple present themselves before the celebrant, who asks them in turn the following question, to which each immediately makes response.

Celebrant N, do you here, in the presence of God and this congregation, renew the commitment you made when you bound yourself to N in holy marriage?

Answer, I do.

The couple may say together,

Gracious God, we remember with thanksgiving our vows of love and commitment to you and to each other in marriage. We pray for your continued blessing. May we learn from our joys and sorrows, and discover new riches in our life together in you. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

The celebrant then blesses them. The following form may be used.

Celebrant Sharon and Norm, may the power of God keep you, the love of God be in your life and work together, the grace of God strengthen your love that it may endure for ever.

Celebrant Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.
