First Sunday of Christmas
December 27, 2020

Today's lessons:

- Isaiah 61:10-62:3 The Lord is praised in a song because he comes to save Jerusalem. And because Jerusalem was the capital of Israel, that means, God has come to save his people.
- Psalm 148 All of creation, praise the Lord!
- Galatians 4:4-7 Jesus Christ was born as a human being under the Law, in order to free us from the Law (that God had once given because human beings otherwise wouldn't do his will).
- Luke 2:22-40 Mary and Joseph take baby Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem to bring a thanksoffering as it is prescribed in the Law. There, an old man named Simeon and an old woman named Anna who represent the old people of God to whom he had given his promise of a Saviour, recognize the child as the Messiah.

WHAT SIMEON SAW

Old Simeon identified the little child brought to the temple as a person of worldwide importance. In his prayer he praised God for what he saw:
