Second Sunday
after Pentecost
June 19, 2022

Today's lessons:

- 1 Kings 19:1-4 (5-7) 8-15a When Queen Jezebel learns that Elijah has killed the prophets of her gods, she swears revenge. So Elijah flees into the wilderness, asking God to end his life. But God has a different plan...
- Psalm 42 and 43 These two psalms form one single composition, with three stanzas and a refrain: "Put your trust in God..." Someone is talking to himself, between doubt and faith.
- Galatians 3:23-29 Before Jesus Christ came, there was the Old Testament Law to make us do God's will. But now that we have become God's children through Baptism, we need not be forced anymore, but do what God wants, just like Jesus himself.
- Luke 8:26-39 For the first time Jesus' ministry leads him outside of Israel. But even here the demons recognize him and obey him.

Imagine!

According to the apostle Paul this is not a utopian idea (= an idea that has no place in reality), but something that really happens in and through Jesus Christ.
Can you figure out what it is?

LEGION

When Jesus, asking the demon for his name receives the answer "Legion!", then that is probably not meant to mean that 4800 Roman soldiers (the standard number of soldiers in a legion) live inside the man. What it really means, you'll find out, once you've found the words below.
