Today's lessons:

- Jonah 3:1-5, 10      God sends his prophet Jonah to the people of Nineveh: 40 days from now their city will be destroyed. But then the people repent, and God changes his mind.
- Psalm 62:5-12      Our Psalm today reminds us that God is more powerful and more reliable than money.
- 1 Corinthians 7:29-31      Paul wants us to get our priorities straight: our eternal life and our relationship with God is far more important than our present life and our feelings.
- Mark 1:14-20      Jesus begins to tell people about the coming of God's kingdom. And recruits his first disciples: a few fishermen whom he wants to fish for people instead.

Have as if you had not

While our life often seems to be all about having stuff, having success, having friends, the apostle Paul wants us to reconsider. For example, does it really make sense to say:

“SO AND SO HAS HUGE PHOTOSYNTHESIS.” ???

Or should people (including us!) rather live like this:
 (It's easy: all you have to do is put everything in its right place !)

PUT YOUR TRUST IN GOD, NOT IN MONEY

Good advice from Psalm 62 (at least if you manage to sort it out):

O N H E S S E T U R C R E A S E M . I F
 O N Y O H E A O T R I C . D T H E I N
